

Manway Hatch Covers access entries for Tanks and Chambers

Manway access hatches WA-WR-K models for non-pressure or pressurized tanks.

Municipal and construction applications for pump stations access, sewer lift stations and chamber entry. Available in Stainless SS 304L, SS 316L, steel and galvanized steel materials.

For highly visible hatch locations, 316L stainless materials may be a polished finish.

Hatch Covers: May be square, rectangular or round, available seals are EDPM seals, Neoprene or other rubber types. Covers are normally insulated to custom requirements.

All sizes available, build to customer specification. Safety features include accidental door closing guards. Door opening assist leavers, grating covers and locking features are also part of the WA-WR-K Manway door construction.

Watertight, stainless steel, open safe arm, seals EDPM rubber, NBR rubber or special requirements.

Manway hatches are customized units built to entry size requirements.

See further information on our web site

WESTATLANTIC Tech Corp.
www.westatlantictech.com

sales@westatlantictech.com 902 455 4455